1. We have heard the learned Counsel for the applicant/accused who prays for being released on bail during the pendency of Criminal Appeal no.208/2007. We have gone through the reasoning set out by the trial Court in support of the order of conviction and sentence and we are satisfied that the applicant does not deserve to be released on bail by suspending the order of sentence under Section 389 of Cr.P.C.

2. Hence, the application is rejected.

3. However, we have noted that the applicant is aged about 67 years and the learned Advocate for the applicant undertakes to submit the private paper book within a period of 4 weeks which could be certified by the registry on the basis of the record & proceedings as soon as it is received.

4. Hence, it is directed that Criminal Appeal No.208/2007 be listed for final hearing as soon as paper book is ready.
